

HELLO, SALAAM, I MISS YOU

When violence erupted in her home town of Kirkuk, 14-year-old Leila and her family were forced to flee Iraq. Since last summer she's been living in a refugee camp in Serbia.

Now Leila's only connection with her extended family, friends and life back home is with messages and calls that sometimes cut out.

It's not the same as catching up over lunch or on the walk home from school.

Every two seconds someone is forced to abandon their home because it's no longer safe for them to stay there.

By raising money this Red Nose Day, you can help young refugees rebuild their lives. Talk to your teacher about how to get involved and find out more at
